

NEW Amazon Sellers

If you have a unique specialty food product, Amazon may be a significant platform. With a market capitalization of over $300 billion, it's the world's largest online retailer. And with $65+ billion in first party sales and 300+ million customers, Amazon and Prime can potentially extend your product reach in a huge way. We look for high-quality premium products in a niche market with a growing consumer base. We're highly collaborative and want to work with companies with a deep commitment to customer satisfaction.
